
Small, correlated pilot: queries recur across paired support draws. Bars show recorded descriptive summaries; no independent-row confidence intervals or calibrated probability claims. Category means receive equal weight. Missing values are omitted, never replaced with zero.