
Small, correlated pilot: queries recur across paired support draws. Bars show recorded descriptive summaries; no independent-row confidence intervals or calibrated probability claims. Category means receive equal weight.
Normal-feature groups are proxy appearance groups.
Matched controls keep the query, candidate pool, seed and k; exactly one initial reference changes.